WINS FROM THE ARMY

all he scored eight goals, the day's record. The last came in the opening of the eighth chukkar, a powerful stroke which lifted the ball a quarter of the way down the field. It was only one example of the spectacular strokes in which the game abounded.

Jay Gould of the Kauai team crowded Malina's record close with a total of seven goals, three of which came in the last part of the eighth chukkar. Time after time Gould brought applause from the stands by the brilliant manner in which he carried the ball down the field, both teams trailing behind, or extracting it from a difficult position with a single powerful swat.

Jim Spalding and Charles Rice of Kauai smote the ball between the posts for totals of five and two goals respectively, while Lieutenant Lipman's pony contributed another goal to Kauai by knocking the ball through in the course of some hard play at the end of the field.

Lone Tally

The single score made by the Army team was sent through by Lieutenant Truscott, who scored it in the fifth chukkar. Several dashing attempts by Truscott and other members of the Army team failed by the slightest of chances.

The first goal for Kauai was scored by Spalding, and Rice followed a moment later with the second. The second period saw the start of Malina's string of goals, the first coming then and the second in the next period. Gould made his first score in the second chukkar also.

From this time on Kauai continued to pile up embarrassment for the score-keeper at the end of the field. Before this gentleman could change Kauai's 5 to 6 on the big score board, the seventh goal had been made, and this state of affairs continued throughout the game.

The score by chukkars was:
I—Kauai 2, Army 0; II—Kauai 3, Army 0; III—Kauai 3, Army 0; IV—Kauai 3, Army 0; V—Kauai 2, Army 1; VI—Kauai 3, Army 0; VII—Kauai 2, Army 0; VIII—Kauai 5, Army 0.

The Lineups

All-Army—Lieutenants Thompson, Truscott, Gibb and Lipman, with Lieutenants Stutzman and Caldwell as substitutes.

Kauai—James Spalding, J. Malina, Charles Rice and Jay Gould.
George Angus was referee, and Captain Wilder of the 17th Cavalry and T. V. King were timekeepers.

Maui's polo quartet will face Kauai to decide the 1920 interisland championship September 6. A slashing game at Kapohani park last Saturday in which Oahu took a 17-5 defeat gave Maui the privilege of battling for the title.
